AllTogetherNow! is a place for creative learning for people of all ages. Located just off Towne Hill Rd. we are centrally located in a beautiful farmhouse with stunning views, open fields, and a 500-acre wooded preserve across the road. We house a fully licensed multi-age child-care/pre-school, art classroom, Art Tiles' Studio, an in-ground swimming pool, offer swim lessons, gardens, barn yard animals, and the residencies of friends and family.

Directors: Ellen Leonard is the founding director of AllTogetherNow! Early Childhood Education Program, director of Music Together in the Montpelier area, and taught music for over 10 years in public school. Janice Walrafen is an artist, educator & puppeteer who since 1986 has been teaching art to people of all ages, organizing community parades and pageants. Janice also sculpts in clay & makes handmade Art Tiles .
